

Standard Methods for the Examination of Water and Wastewater

Disclosure of Interest Form

A conflict of interest exists when a volunteer possesses two or more separate interests that compete, or could potentially compete, with each other. Possessing two separate interests of any sort represents a conflict. A conflict does not imply intent nor error, but the factual existence of circumstance.

Competing interests do not necessarily preclude participation in the SMC (or a JTG, if relevant). However, any balloting or final work submitted is reviewed against the information provided below to determine whether voting processes require alteration (see SM SOP Section xx. Disclosure of Interest).

Please indicate whether you have an economic interest in, or act as an officer or a director of, any outside entity whose financial interests would reasonably appear to be affected by your appointment to the SMC (or to a JTG, if relevant). Also, disclose any personal, business, or volunteer affiliations that may give rise to a real or apparent competing interests.

Relevant federally and organizationally established regulations and guidelines in financial conflicts must be abided by.

Please describe below any relationships, transactions, positions you hold (volunteer or otherwise), or circumstances that could be perceived as holding a competing interest:

I have no interest to disclose, apart from my role at Standard Methods.

I disclose the following interests (role, relationship, position, responsibility, benefit):

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

I hereby certify that the information above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge.
